The performance and financing by the Company of the tasks related to the universal defence obligation shall be subject to the terms and conditions set out in separate provisions.

III.SHARE CAPITAL

Share capital

1. The Company's share capital amounts to PLN 2,166,900,750 (two billion, one hundred and sixty-six million, nine hundred thousand, seven hundred and fifty zloty) and is divided into:
 - 1) 43,338,000 (forty-three million, three hundred and thirty-eight thousand) ordinary bearer series A shares with a nominal value of PLN 50 (fifty) each; and
 - 2) 15 (fifteen) ordinary registered series B shares with a nominal value of PLN 50 (fifty) each.
2. The share capital was fully paid up prior to the registration of the Company.
3. The shares in the Company are ordinary shares.
4. Bearer shares may not be converted into registered shares.
5. The ordinary registered series B shares referred to in section 1.2 above will be converted into ordinary bearer shares on the day of their dematerialisation within the meaning of the Act on Trading in Financial Instruments.

Reserve capitals

The Company may create reserve capitals pursuant to a resolution of the Management Board.

Redemption of shares

1. Shares in the Company may be redeemed pursuant to a resolution of the General Meeting and with the consent of the shareholder whose shares are to be redeemed (voluntary redemption).
2. A shareholder whose shares have been redeemed is entitled to compensation. Upon the consent of the given shareholder, shares may be redeemed without compensation therefor.
3. Redemption of shares will require a decrease of the share capital.

IV. COMPANY AUTHORITIES

The corporate authorities of the Company are:

- 1) the General Meeting;
- 2) the Management Board; and
- 3) the Supervisory Board.

V. GENERAL MEETING

1. The chairperson of the General Meeting is nominated in writing by the President of the Management Board. The so-nominated Chairperson of the General Meeting shall open the General Meeting. If the President of the Management Board does not nominate the Chairperson of the General Meeting before the time when the session is scheduled to begin, the provisions of Art. 409 §1 of the Commercial Companies Code shall apply.
2. The Extraordinary General Meeting may be convened by a shareholder whose share in the total number of votes in the Company exceeds 33%. In such case, the shareholder who convenes the Extraordinary General Meeting shall nominate the Chairperson of the General Meeting. The provisions of this section shall be without prejudice to Art. 400 §1 of the Commercial Companies Code.
3. General Meetings may be held at the Company's registered office in Warsaw.
4. The General Meeting shall be valid regardless of the number of shares represented thereat, subject to § 27 section 7.
5. If the General Meeting convocation notice contains information that shareholders can participate in the General Meeting with the use of means of electronic communication, the Company shall be required to provide shareholders with the possibility of participating in the General Meeting via electronic communication.
6. Detailed rules governing the holding of General Meetings with the use of means of electronic communication shall be specified by the Management Board subject to the provisions of the General Meeting by-laws. The Management Board shall announce these rules on the Company's website. The rules should provide for:

- 1) real-time broadcasting of the General Meeting;
 - 2) real-time bilateral communication where shareholders may take the floor during a General Meeting from a location other than that where the General Meeting is being held;
 - 3) that the shareholders may exercise their rights to vote during a General Meeting either in person or through a proxy from a location other than that where the General Meeting is being held.
7. General Meetings shall be attended by such number of Supervisory Board members and Management Board members so as to enable them to provide specific answers to any questions asked during the General Meeting.

1. Resolutions of the General Meeting shall be adopted by an absolute majority of votes, unless applicable law or the terms of these articles of association provide more stringent requirements for the adoption of a relevant resolution.
2. Each share entitles its holder to one vote at the General Meeting.

1. Resolutions of the General Meeting are required in matters specified in the Commercial Companies Code, other laws and the provisions of these Articles of Association.
2. Competencies of the General Meeting, apart from other matters reserved as such in the provisions of the Commercial Companies Code or other laws, include:
 - 1) appointing and dismissing the President of the Management Board and other members of the Management Board in the case referred to in § 14 section 2;
 - 2) appointing and dismissing Supervisory Board members, subject to the personal rights of PKP S.A. set out in § 19 section 2, section 9 sentence 1 and the rights enjoyed by the Company's employees set out in § 19 section 3 ;
 - 3) determining the remuneration due to members of the Management Board, as long as the share of PKP S.A. exceeds 50% of the share capital of the Company, and as long as mandatory rules of law so require; and
 - 4) adopting the by-laws of the General Meeting.
3. The acquisition and sale of real estate, the right of perpetual usufruct or a share in real estate shall not require a resolution of the General Meeting.

1. Voting rights of shareholders who have in excess of 10% of the total number of votes in the Company shall be limited in that no such shareholder may exercise at the General Meeting more than 10% of the total number of the votes in the Company existing on the date of the General Meeting. The above limitation shall not apply for the purposes of determining the obligations of purchasers of significant blocks of shares as set forth in the Act on Public Offering.

2. The limitation on voting rights referred to in section 1 shall not apply to those shareholders who on the date on which the General Meeting resolution introducing the limitation referred to in section 1 are already entitled to exercise voting rights, including also as a usufructuary, attached to shares representing more than 10% of the total number of the votes existing in the Company, or to any other entity that will acquire the shares in the Company held by the shareholders referred to above in connection with the liquidation thereof.
3. For the purposes of the limitation on voting rights set out in section 1, votes of shareholders connected by a dominance or subsidiary relationship shall be added in accordance with the rules described below.
4. A shareholder within the meaning of section 1 is any person, and its dominant entity or a subsidiary, who is entitled, directly or indirectly, to exercise voting rights at the General Meeting based on any legal title whatsoever; this also applies to any person who does not own shares in the Company, in particular a usufructuary, a pledgee, the holder of a depositary receipt within the meaning of the Act on Trading in Financial Instruments, as well as a person entitled to participate in the General Meeting despite having disposed of their shares after the record date (the date on which the right to participate in the General Meeting is determined).
5. A dominant entity and a subsidiary, for the purposes of this paragraph, shall be understood as, respectively:
 - 1) one who meets the conditions set out in Art. 4 § 1 point 4) of the Commercial Companies Code; or
 - 2) one who has the status of a dominant undertaking, dependent undertaking or at the same time the status of a dominant undertaking or dependent undertaking within the meaning of the provisions of the Act on the Protection of Competition and Consumers; or
 - 3) having the status of a controlling entity, a higher-level controlling entity, a subsidiary entity, a lower-level subsidiary entity, a co-subsidiary entity or one at the same time having the status of controlling entity (including a higher-level controlling entity) and a subsidiary entity (including a lower-level subsidiary entity and a co-subsidiary entity) within the meaning of the provisions of the Accounting Act; or
 - 4) one which exerts (as a dominant entity) or on which (a subsidiary) a decisive influence is exerted within the meaning of the provisions of the Act on the Transparency of Financial Relationships; or
 - 5) one whose votes attached to the shares held, directly or indirectly, in the Company, are subject to accumulation with the votes of another person or other persons on the terms specified in the Act on Public Offering in connection with the holding, disposal or acquisition of significant blocks of shares in the Company.
6. Shareholders whose votes are subject to accumulation and reduction in accordance with the provisions of sections 3 to 7 shall collectively be referred to as a “Grouping”. An accumulation of votes involves the summing up of the votes held by the individual shareholders who are members of a Grouping. A reduction of votes involves a decrease of the total number of the votes in the Company held at the General Meeting by shareholders who are members of a Grouping. Reduction of votes is effected as follows:

- 1) for each shareholder who is a member of a Grouping a percentage share is calculated for his shares in the accumulated number of votes held by the entire Grouping;
 - 2) the number of votes is calculated corresponding to 10% of the total number of the votes existing in the Company on the date of the General Meeting;
 - 3) for each shareholder the product of his percentage share referred to in point 1) and the amount of shares referred to in point 2) is calculated;
 - 4) the number of votes held by each of the shareholders who are members of the Grouping after the reduction is the result of the calculation from point 3) after being rounded up to an integral number of votes;
 - 5) the limitation on the exercise of voting rights also applies to shareholders who are absent from the General Meeting.
7. In order to determine the basis for the accumulation and reduction of votes, each shareholder of the Company, the Management Board, the Supervisory Board and the individual members of these bodies, as well as the Chairperson of the General Meeting, may demand that a shareholder of the Company who is subject to the voting rights limitation provides information as to whether he is, with respect to any other shareholder of the Company, a dominant entity or a subsidiary within the meaning of section 5.
8. In case of any doubt, the interpretation of the provisions on voting rights limitations shall be governed by Art. 65 § 2 of the Civil Code.

VI. THE MANAGEMENT BOARD

1. The Management Board shall be composed of between one and five members, including the President of the Management Board, appointed for a joint three-year term of office.
2. As long as PKP S.A. has all the votes at the General Meeting, and as long as the mandatory rules of law so require, the President of the Management Board and the other members of the Management Board shall be appointed and dismissed by the General Meeting.
3. Subject to point 2) above, as long as the State Treasury, PKP S.A. or other state-owned legal entities hold less than 100% of the shares in the Company, the President of the Management Board and the other members of the Management Board shall be appointed and dismissed by the Supervisory Board on the terms and conditions specified in sections from 4 to 6 below.
4. In the case where the share of PKP S.A. is 50% or less of the share capital of the Company, PKP S.A. shall be authorized to exclusively nominate candidates for the position of the President of the Management Board. The personal right referred to in the preceding sentence shall be exercised by serving on the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board a written representation.

5. The Supervisory Board shall appoint one member of the Management Board from among the candidates presented by the Company's employees. Such a candidate must have an academic degree, at least five years' employment experience in the capital group of PKP and have no criminal record. The rules governing the elections of candidates for an employee representative in the Management Board shall be adopted by the Supervisory Board. The failure to elect an employee's representative to the Management Board shall not be an obstacle to the appointment of the Management Board or the adoption of binding resolutions thereby.
6. The members of the Management Board (including the President of the Management Board and the member of the Management Board referred to in section 5 above) shall be appointed in accordance with the following terms:
 - 1) the members of the Management Board (including the President of the Management Board and the member of the Management Board referred to in section 5 above) shall be appointed after holding a qualification procedure, the terms and conditions of which shall be determined in the these Articles of Association and in the rules adopted by the Supervisory Board (the "Rules for Appointing Members of the Management Board"), subject to the provisions of the Ordinance of the Council of Ministers of 18 March 2003 on qualification checks for board positions in certain companies (Dziennik Ustaw of 2003 No. 55 item 47, as amended); the Rules for Appointing Members of the Management Board set forth, in particular, the qualifications to be assessed when nominating candidates for specific positions in the Management Board; any amendments to the Rules for Appointing Members of the Management Board require the consent of two members of the Supervisory Board meeting the independence criteria and appointed pursuant to the rules set forth in § 20 and § 21 below;
 - 2) the nomination committee participates in the procedure of appointing members of the Management Board and its composition and functions are specified in § 26 sections 3 and 4;
 - 3) the qualification procedure for the position of member of the Management Board shall be prepared and arranged by a professional executive search firm appointed by way of a resolution of the Supervisory Board on the terms and conditions specified in the Rules for Appointing Members of the Management Board (the "Recruitment Advisor"); the tasks of the Recruitment Advisor shall include organising and handling the qualification procedure for the position of member of the Management Board under the on-going supervision of the nomination committee, in particular preparing, organising and actively participating in interviews with candidates for the position of member of the Management Board; the Recruitment Advisor shall prepare written opinions on individual candidates for the position of member of the Management Board; subject to the provisions of the Articles of Association, the detailed scope of the competences and tasks of the Recruitment Advisor in the qualification procedure are set forth in the Rules for Appointing Members of the Management Board;
 - 4) a written opinion providing an assessment of individual candidates for the position of member of the Management Board should shortlist at least one positively assessed candidate for each vacancy on the Management Board, provided that if two or more candidates are positively assessed by the

Recruitment Advisor, all of these candidates should be presented in the opinion; if the opinion of the Recruitment Advisor does not shortlist at least one positively assessed candidate, on the terms set forth in the Rules for Appointing Members of the Management Board, a given qualification procedure shall be completed without determination of any candidates and the Supervisory Board shall initiate a new qualification procedure; other cases of completing the qualification procedure without the determination of any candidates and initiating a new qualification procedure are provided for in the Rules for Appointing Members of the Management Board;

5) specific positions on the Management Board shall be fulfilled solely from amongst candidates who participated in the qualification procedure and who were positively assessed by the Recruitment Advisor;

6) based on the conducted qualification procedure, the nomination committee should prepare a report which should in particular contain a statement on the compliance of the procedure for the appointment of a given member of the Management Board with the provisions of these Articles of Association and the Rules for Appointing Members of the Management Board; the detailed scope of what is required to be included in the report is provided for in the Rules for Appointing Members of the Management Board; within seven days of signing the report, the Company makes the contents thereof available to the general public in the form of and on the terms set forth in the Rules for Appointing Members of the Management Board, including in the form of a current report and by being published on the Company's website;

7) upon each amendment to the Rules for Appointing Members of the Management Board, the nomination committee shall prepare a written report with detailed information regarding the implemented amendments, the nature and scope thereof as well as justifications for the implemented amendments; such report should also contain a statement on the compliance of the procedure for amending the Rules for Appointing Members of the Management Board with these Articles of Association and the Rules for Appointing Members of the Management Board; subject to the provisions of the Rules for Appointing Members of the Management Board, the detailed scope of what should be included in the report should be provided by the nomination committee; the Supervisory Board should submit a written report prepared by the nomination committee to the shareholders of the Company as part of the materials provided to them for the next General Meeting; and

8) the costs related to conducting the qualification procedure, including the fee for the recruitment advisor, are to be covered by the Company.

7. If any shareholder or any Grouping, within the meaning of § 13 section 6, reaches or exceeds a 33% share in the share capital of the Company, the Supervisory Board's resolution on dismissing or suspending the Management Board or a member of the Management Board shall require majority of 75% of the votes. The same 75% majority of the votes shall also be required for the General Meeting to adopt a resolution on dismissing or suspending the Management Board or a member of the Management Board.

8. The provisions of section 7 above shall not apply to a situation where the shareholder which has reached or exceeded the 33% share in the share capital of the Company is PKP S.A. or a Grouping of which PKP S.A. is a member.
9. The number of members of the Management Board shall be determined by the Supervisory Board.
10. The right referred to in section 5 above has been granted to the Company's employees pursuant to Art. 4 section 4 of the Act on PKP's Commercialisation, Restructuring and Privatisation and the Employee Guarantees Pact.

If the Management Board consists of one member, the Company shall be represented by the President of the Management Board. If the Management Board consists of more than one member, the Company shall be represented by the President of the Management Board individually or by any two members of the Management Board acting jointly or by one member of the Management Board acting jointly with a registered proxy.

§ 16

1. The Management Board manages the affairs of the Company and represents it with regard to third parties.
2. The Management Board is entitled to manage all affairs of the Company which are not reserved for the General Meeting or for the Supervisory Board.
3. Affairs which fall within the ordinary course of business of the Company shall not require a resolution of the Management Board; however, the following matters shall require a Management Board resolution:
 - 1) the incurring of credits and loans;
 - 2) the establishment of mortgages and pledges and other security interests;
 - 3) the granting of guarantees or sureties by the Company;
 - 4) the issuance, guaranteeing or endorsing bills of exchange;
 - 5) the approval of the Company's employee remuneration system;
 - 6) the creation and liquidation of a representative office of the Company abroad;
 - 7) the approval of the organisational by-laws of the Company and an organisational chart of the Company;
 - 8) the appointment of registered proxies;
 - 9) payment of an interim dividend with respect to the dividend anticipated to be paid at the end of the financial year;
 - 10) the creation of reserve capitals;
 - 11) matters which the Management Board refers to the General Meeting or to the Supervisory Board.
4. Resolutions of the Management Board shall be adopted with an absolute majority of votes. If the number of votes cast in favour of a resolution is equal to the number of votes cast against combined with abstaining votes, the President of the Management Board shall have the casting vote.

5. Members of the Management Board may participate in the adoption of Management Board resolutions by casting their vote in writing through another member of the Management Board. Votes cannot be cast in writing with respect to matters introduced to the agenda during the meeting of the Management Board.
6. Resolutions of the Management Board may be adopted in writing or with the use of means of direct communication over distance.
7. The Management Board operates based on by-laws which are approved by the Supervisory Board at the request of the President of the Management Board.
8. The President of the Management Board directs the activities of the Management Board. Special rights in that respect vested in the President of the Management Board are specified in the by-laws of the Management Board.
9. The President of the Management Board convenes meetings of the Management Board and chairs such meetings. The President of the Management Board may authorise other members of the Management Board to convene and chair meetings of the Management Board.
10. Special competencies of the President of the Management Board include the performance of defence tasks by the Company resulting from the provisions on universal defence obligation.

The Management Board is required to submit to the Supervisory Board, at least on a quarterly basis, reports concerning significant events in the course of the Company's activities. Each such report will also include a report on the revenues, costs and the Company's financial results.

§ 18

With the consent of the Supervisory Board, the Management Board may pay an interim dividend with respect to the dividend anticipated to be paid at the end of the financial year.

VII. THE SUPERVISORY BOARD

1. Subject to sections 8 and 10 below and § 22, the Supervisory Board shall consist of between eleven and thirteen members, including the Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson of the Supervisory Board, appointed for a joint term of office. Subject to sections 2 and 3 below, the members of the Supervisory Board shall be appointed and dismissed by the General Meeting.
2. PKP S.A. shall be entitled to appoint and dismiss members of the Supervisory Board in a number equal to half of the composition of the Supervisory Board determined in accordance with section 8 (in the event that this number is not an integer, it shall be rounded down to the nearest integer) increased by one. At least one member of the Supervisory Board appointed by PKP S.A. in accordance with this section must meet the independence criteria within the meaning of Article 86 section 5 of the Act on Statutory Auditors and have competence in accounting and/or auditing.
3. The Company's employees have the right to appoint and dismiss three representatives in the Supervisory Board. The rules governing the elections of candidates to be an employee representative in the Supervisory Board shall be adopted by the Supervisory

Board. The failure to elect employee representatives to the Supervisory Board shall not be an obstacle to the appointment of the Supervisory Board or the adoption of binding resolutions thereby.

4. Subject to section 5 below, the Supervisory Board shall elect out of its members the Chairperson and the Deputy Chairperson of the Supervisory Board.
5. PKP S.A. shall have the personal right to elect the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board from among the Supervisory Board members elected by voting in separate groups in accordance with the procedure specified in Art. 385 § 3 to 7 of the Commercial Companies Code. If the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board is not indicated by PKP S.A. within 30 (thirty) days from the election of the Supervisory Board in accordance with the procedure referred to in the preceding sentence, the Supervisory Board shall elect the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board from among its members.
6. The personal rights referred to above in sections 2 and 5 shall be exercised by serving on the Company a written representation on appointing or dismissing the given member of the Supervisory Board or on indicating the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board.
7. The term of office of Supervisory Board members shall be three years.
8. The number of Supervisory Board Members shall be determined by PKP S.A., and this shall also apply to the situation when the Supervisory Board is elected by voting in separate groups pursuant to Art. 385 of the Commercial Companies Code (in such case the Supervisory Board may be composed of five up to thirteen members). The personal rights referred to in the preceding sentence shall be exercised by serving on the Company a written representation.
9. If the event of an expiry of the term of office of any Supervisory Board member elected by way of voting in separate groups pursuant to Art. 385 § 3 to 7 of the Commercial Companies Code, PKP S.A. shall have the personal right to appoint one new member of the Supervisory Board in the place of such member whose term of office has expired. The remaining Supervisory Board members shall be appointed by the General Meeting.
10. If, during the term of office, a Supervisory Board member appointed from among the members elected by the employees is dismissed, until the required number of Supervisory Board members elected by employees is supplemented, resolutions of the Supervisory Board shall be valid as long as the Supervisory Board has at least five members.
11. The right referred to in section 3 above has been granted to the Company's employees pursuant to Art. 4 section 4 of the Act on PKP's Commercialisation, Restructuring and Privatisation and the Employee Guarantees Pact.
12. To qualify for being elected as an employee representative in the Supervisory Board an individual must have passed the state examination for candidates for members of supervisory boards of companies in which the State Treasury is the sole shareholder or be exempt from the obligation to take such examination and hold the equivalent qualifications.
13. A member of the Supervisory Board appointed pursuant to section 3 above may also be dismissed by the General Meeting for important reasons.

1. At least two Supervisory Board members elected by the General Meeting with due regard for § 21 below must meet: (i) the criteria of independence from the Company and from any entities which have significant relationships with the Company provided for in § 21 and in Annex II to the European Commission Recommendation, as well as (ii) independence criteria within the meaning of Art. 86 section 5 of the Act on Statutory Auditors.
2.
